Note: On May 18, 1998 the US Department of Housing and Urban Development published in the Federal Register a new regulation prohibiting a housing authority from approving a unit for lease if the owner is the parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, sister or brother or any member of the family of the Section 8 Voucher or certificate holder that is seeking to rent the unit. The new policy applies to new admissions and to moves with continued assistance, and requires a signed certification by both the owner and prospective tenant.

Owner Certification:

I hereby certify that I nor any member of my household is a parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, sister or brother of any member of the family seeking to lease my rental unit.
